1. A large new airfield was located along the RADOM (R 52/Q 19) - WARSAW road, about 15 miles north-northwest of RADOM, near the village of KALLEN (R 52/P 91).
2. The field, which was said to be one of the three largest and best airfields in Poland, had concrete taxiways, runways and hangars and was strictly guarded by air force police.
3. Local residents, acquainted with source, said that many Soviet aircraft were permanently or temporarily stationed at the field.
